Re: General Notice and Information Request for the Chemetco Superfund Site in Hartford, Illinois

Dear Ms. Kerr:

We are submitting this letter on behalf of Stephen L. Fallen who received from Ms. Joan Tanaka a November 30, 2011 General Notice and Information Request (“EPA Letter”) for the Chemetco Superfund Site in Hartford, Illinois (the “Site”). The Waste-In List that accompanied the EPA Letter listed Ennis Automotive, Inc. (the “Company”) as a Potentially Responsible Party (PRP) for the Chemetco Superfund Site. We believe that the EPA Letter was directed to Mr. Fallen in his capacity as the registered agent for the Company since Mr. Fallen is not, individually, shown on the attachment to the EPA Letter entitled “Recipients of Information Requests with this General Notice Letter

Although this firm does not represent the Company, on behalf of Mr. Fallen we advise you of the following public information concerning the Company. On May 16, 2005, the Company filed a Voluntary Petition under Chapter 7 of the United States Bankruptcy Code. See Attachment A. On June 22, 2011, the Trustee filed a Notice of Amended Trustee’s Final Report. See Attachment B. As noted in that Final Report, all assets of the Company were liquidated and distributed to the creditors, which left the bankruptcy estate with a remaining balance of $0.00. Following the distribution, a de minimis amount of $55.43 was received by the Trustee, which was also subsequently distributed to the creditors. See Attachment C.

Based on the above information, we believe that Ennis Automotive, Inc. no longer has any assets, and, according to the Texas Secretary of State’s website, is no longer an active Texas corporation. (We also observe that the Company, as a defunct entity, would not have the “ability to pay” under applicable EPA policies.)

As noted above, Mr. Fallen, individually, is not a "recipient" of EPA's information request and, therefore, has not endeavored to respond to EPA's information request in his individual capacity. Should you need additional information from Mr. Fallen, please do not hesitate to contact me.
